
LEAN & SUSTAINABLE CONSORTIUM

Come along and be our guest for a single session

We have not had any newcomers
not joining the consortium... ever!

WHY?

The Lean and Sustainable Consortium is different from any lean network you have come across before and the reason is simple.

We discuss and share those difficult aspects of change and journey that you neither read about in books nor hear about at conferences.

WHO?

We have members from all around the World.

The L&S Consortium is suitable for senior leadership in various sectors and industries with different backgrounds who are willing to openly share and discuss.
